

Licensed Aircraft Engineer EASA Part-66 B1.1 100%

DESCRIPTION

Based in north-western Switzerland, Aero Group is a well-established EASA Part-145 organisation, holding ratings for piston and turbine aircraft, as well as piston and turbine helicopters for electrical and avionics installations.

We strive to provide our customers with extended craftsmanship, dedicated commitment to meet and exceed their requirements while complying with current regulations both in the field of Initial and Continuing Airworthiness.

In order to strengthen our aircraft maintenance department, we have an immediate open position for a full time Licenced Aircraft Engineer. The applicant should fulfil following requirements:

REQUIREMENTS

- EASA Part-66 Cat B1.1 licence holder
- Type rated on Beechcraft King Air Series, TBM Series or Cessna Caravan would be an asset
- Familiar with EASA Part-M, Part-145 and Part-21 regulations
- Very good language skills in English
- Good IT skills
- Eligible to work in Switzerland
- Willingness to integrate into a growing company
- Established in Switzerland or willing to re-locate in the area of Neuchâtel
- Good reputé, maturity, integrity and loyal personality with social skills

WE OFFER

- Contemporary and competitive wage and social condition
- Dynamic, ambitious and progressing company
- Possible type rating training for B1.1 licence holder
- Continuous training program
- Location: LSGC and LSGN
- Unlimited contract

APPLYING

Please send your application including cover letter, licenses, and CV (with color photo) by e-mail: job@aerogroup.ch

